Special Religious Education and Special Education in Ethics Participation Letter

A feature of the public education system in NSW is the opportunity to provide time for education in ethics, faith and morality from a religious or non-religious perspective at the choice of parents.

The school website <https://quakershil-h.schools.nsw.gov.au/> provides information on these options to support parent/carer choice.

Quakers Hill High School offers weekly SRE classes to all interested students. This class takes place on a Wednesday morning during extended roll call. Students who do not attend Scripture are engaged in extended roll call activities.

A parent/carer may at any time notify the school in writing that they wish to change their decision. Students will continue the same arrangement as the previous year, unless a parent/carer has requested a change in writing.

For more information about Special Religious Education (SRE) and Special Education in Ethics (SEE), including the list of approved providers, please visit: <https://education.nsw.gov.au/teachingand-learning/curriculum/learning-across-the-curriculum/religion-and-ethics>

Students who do not attend SRE simply attend the Wednesday extended roll call.

- o Anglican SRE is the only Scripture option currently available at Quakers Hill High School.

- o Please check this box if you do not wish for your child to attend SRE.
